Level 1 Sensor Assembler

Seeking highly motivated individuals with good work ethic, fine motor skills, and good hand/eye coordination. Qualified candidates must have ability to read and follow blueprints and work instructions. Use of microscope required.

Essential Duties and Responsibilities

- Soldering fine wire and small electronic assembly.
- Performs intermediate assembly task, such as potting, encapsulating, sanding, cleaning, epoxy bonding, curing, stamping, etching, and color-coding parts, and assembling.
- Tends machines that press, shape, or wind component parts.
- Adjusts or trims materials from components to achieve specified electrical or dimensional characteristics.
- Performs online Go/No Go testing and inspection to ensure parts and assemblies meet production specifications and standards.

Minimum Education/Experience

High School Diploma or GED Equivalent. Electronic manufacturing background is helpful but not necessary. In-house training provided.

Wage/Benefits

This is a full time, non-exempt position. Hourly wage is $22.00 to $24.00 per hour.

Full time Employees are provided company-paid medical, dental, vision, disability, & life insurance.

Paid Time Off for employees begins at thirteen (13) days per year along with nine (9) paid Holidays.

Participation in the Employee Stock Ownership Plan and discretionary Profit Sharing are available once an employee meets the eligibility requirements.

UniWest is an EEO employer and encourages anyone interested to apply.